

Information on the collection of personal data - recipients

At Berliner Samenbank GmbH (responsible: Dr. med. David J. Peet, Friedrichstraße 152, 10117 Berlin), all personal data is collected and stored in an EDP system. The collection, storage and processing of your data is necessary and permissible according to the European Data Protection Regulation (Art. 6 para. 1 b EU-DSGVO and Art. 9 para. 2 h EU-DSGVO). This includes, among other things, billing and the creation/sending of invoices. We are committed to handling your personal data with care. The data you entrust to us as part of the selection process for acquiring donor sperm/checking the availability of donor sperm will only be used by us to optimize your advice and support.

We do not pass on your personal data to third parties, unless you have consented to such a data transfer or we are entitled or obliged to pass on data due to legal provisions and / or official or court orders. For the protection of your data, appropriate contracts have been concluded with the service providers.

On the basis of the EU-DSGVO you have the right to

- to information about the data stored by us (Art. 15 DSGVO),
- the correction of incorrect data (Art. 16 DSGVO),
- the deletion or blocking of your data (Art. 17 DSGVO) - if you are no longer required for the purpose of collection, storage and use, or legal storage obligations, e.g. in the context of patients' rights, or against the background of possible warranty or liability claims no longer exist.

You also have the right to restriction of data processing (Art. 18 DSGVO), to data portability (Art. 20 DSGVO) and to object to data processing consent already given (Art. 21 DSGVO) with effect for the future.

If you do not agree with the collection and processing of your data, or if you suspect a violation of data protection law, please contact us. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Berlin State Commissioner for Data Protection:

Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, Friedrichstr. 219, 10969 Berlin; mailbox@datenschutz-berlin.de